Best Practice Pointer No. 3 Videotaped Depositions

REMINDER:

You, the court reporter, are creating the official record via your stenographic notes. It doesn't matter what the videographer is doing or not doing. You may go off the record while the video continues, as in the case of marking an exhibit. You may remain on the record while the video has stopped, as in the case of getting attorneys' orders at the end of the deposition.

Best practice pointers are not regulations or statutorily mandated. They are a way for the Board to provide guidance on situations not expressly set out in statute or regulation. Although the pointers may be used by licensees as a guide, the Board will not use them as a basis for discipline or enforcement of any type.
