

COURT REPORTERS BOARD OF CALIFORNIA

NOTICE ON COLLECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Collection and Use of Personal Information

The Department of Consumer Affairs and the Court Reporters Board collects the information requested on this form as authorized by Business and Professions Code sections 325 and 326 and the Information Practices Act. The Department and/or the Court Reporters Board uses this information to follow up on your complaint.

Providing Personal Information is Voluntary

You do not have to provide the personal information requested. If you do not wish to provide personal information, such as your name, home address, or home telephone number, you may remain anonymous. In that case, however, we may not be able to contact you or help you resolve your complaint.

Access to Your Information

You may review the records maintained by the Court Reporters Board that contain your personal information, as permitted by the Information Practices Act. See contact information below.

Possible Disclosure of Personal Information

We make every effort to protect the personal information you provide us. However, in order to follow up on your complaint, we may need to share the information you give us with the business you complained about or with other government agencies. This may include sharing any personal information you gave us.

The information you provide may also be disclosed in the following circumstances:

- In response to a Public Records Act request, as allowed by the Information Practices Act;
- To another government agency as required by state or federal law; or,
- In response to a court or administrative order, a subpoena, or a search warrant.
